Introduction

So, you have decided you want to start playing competitively and leave the casual lifestyle behind. You already know for which game you want to go pro in but have no idea where to start. As you may know, esports is an important part of Blueshell. We even have it in our name! As a student association we wish to make our names known in the dutch collegiate sport scene and also in the normal scene while collaborating with talented individuals from our university.

This document will walk you through the process of Esports in Blueshell. The aim of this is to stimulate esports in Blueshell both on high and low levels and provide services to players with the goal of improving as a team and individually. This manual is maintained by the Commissioner of Esports for Blueshell, Andrei "EIDonte" Raureanu. If you'd like to contact him for more information or requests to play in teams, you can do so by contacting him on Discord (EIDonte#0002)!
